New York has an unlucky number of millionaires—thirteen hundred.

A telegraphic message can now be sent around the world in nine and a half minutes.

This year has surely been a record-breaker for floods, cyclones, wrecks, murders, suicides, &c.

Young Vanderbilt's automobile exploded the other day, and he is now nursing a damaged eye.

There are unprecedented floods on the Colorado river; thousands of acres of land are under water and the property loss is heavy.

General Davis reports to the War Department that a considerable reduction of troops in the Philippines would be possible next year. Yes, possible, but not probable.

Richmond's ex-alderman, John M. King, charged with bribery and out on bail, has disappeared for good, it seems, as nothing has been heard from him for several weeks.

A young man in New York attempted suicide the other day by cigarette smoking. He succeeded in inhaling eighteen packages of cigarettes and when found was unconscious. Prompt work at a hospital saved his life.

The assessment of real and personal property in the city of New York is enormous. The valuation of real estate amounts to $4,751,532,826, an increase of $1,420,885,247 over last year's assessment, and the personal property, for purposes of taxation, is valued at $680,866,000, an increase of $155.000,000 during the year.

While playing in the streets of Hoboken the other day a little girl who had been afflicted with paralysis for a number of years, was struck by a live electric wire which had fallen in her pathway. She received a severe shock, and it was found when she had recovered from it, that all traces of the paralysis had disappeared.

A $75,000,000 wheat crop was grown in Kansas this year. On Sunday religious services were suspended in the farming section and everybody put in a full day in the fields gathering the immense crop. Men, women and children were pressed into service, the women driving teams and the children carrying water to the workers. Harvesting is now going on night and day.

THE MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Merchants' Association yesterday afternoon Mr. P. Heinsberger tendered his resignation as secretary and treasurer of the organization and same was accepted to take effect Oct. 1st.

The matter of better means of communication by roads, ferries and bridges between Wilmington and the territory near by, with free ferriage over the Cape Fear, Northeast and Brunswick rivers, was discussed, but no definite action was taken.

The remainder of the session was devoted principally to business of a routine and private character. The usual reports were submitted, read and approved. Vice President Whitlock presided at the meeting in the absence of President Jno. H. Rehder and members in attendance were Messrs. Geo. O. Gaylord, A. O. Schuster, J. M. Solky and Marcus W. Jacobi.

NEW CAPTAIN OF ENGINEERS.

Said That Officer in Charge of Debris Commission Has Been Sent Here.

The Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, under date of July 9ih, sends that paper the following item:

"Capt. Robert Johnson, secretary and disbursing officer of the California debris commission, has been assigned to duty at Wilmington as officer in charge of engineering work there. He relieves Capt. E. E. Winslow."

Inquiry at the Wilmington office last night brought the reply that nothing was known of the transfer there. Capt. Winslow, who has taken his residence in Norfolk and been placed in charge of the office there and also at Wilmington, was here Thursday and returned to Norfolk Thursday evening. He knew nothing of the transfer, but the news, coming as it does from Washington, is regarded as authentic.

ICE FACTORY AFIRE.

Inhabitants Had Visions of a Famine and Necessarily Higher Prices.

BOILER ROOM DESTROYED.

Independent Company Had a Blaze from Which It Will Recover Early—Department Responded to Five Alarms During the Day.

Grave apprehensions of an ice famine and consequent high prices swept over the city late yesterday afternoon when wild rumors on the streets announced that the plant of the Independent Ice Company, at Seventh and Brunswick streets, was being destroyed by fire. People hurried to the scene of the supposed conflagration and were gratified to find that by heroic effort on the part of the company's employes and the city firemen, who responded to an alarm from box 31 at 5:30 o'clock, that only the boiler room had been destroyed, though the factory proper had a close call, a brick wall intervening having saved the larger building.

The fire originated over the boilers in the roof of the shed and was first discovered by parties outside the factory, on Brunswick street. The employes were hastily informed that the building was on fire and very soon they had two hose playing on the flames from the company's own equipment. As soon as possible the alarm was sent to the Department and the firemen responded quickly, joining forces with the factory employes and confining the fire to the boiler room, which in the nature of the case, was entirely consumed. Chief Engineer John A. Morris as quickly as possible stopped the machinery and put the pumps to work to save the boilers. By that presence of mind and the splendid work of the firemen the boilers were uninjured, though a large amount of the steam fittings were more or less damaged.

President J. A. Springer and General Manager L. H. Simmons, of the company, said last night that the damage will not exceed $1,000, which is fully covered by insurance. President Springer also said that the delivery of ice would in no way be interrupted and that the machinery would be started up this morning as usual. The flames were not out yesterday before the management, with its characteristic enterprise, had machinists on the ground ready to begin the work of repair as soon as the pipes were cooled. The Wilmington Iron Works had a force of a dozen men at work all last night repairing the machinery, so that steam may be put on the boilers this morning. An official announcement of the company as to deliveries is made in the advertising columns.

Other Fires Yesterday.

Although the weather was sizzling hot yesterday and people felt like calling out the Department to combat the efforts of Old Sol, the firemen had a busy day of it keeping down fires of another origin. Three alarms were responded to during the morning, the first at 10:32, A. M. residence at corner of Fourth and Church streets, where sparks caused a damage of $10; the second at 10:36 A. M., house at 611 Taylor street, occupied by Ferbie Lewis, which, was damaged similarly, and the third at 11 A. M., house occupied by Georgia Singletary, No. 913 Cleveland avenue, where sparks also caused a $10 damage.

At 12:10 o'clock this morning an alarm from box 43 called the Department to Capt. Preston Cumming's wood-working plant at foot of Dock street, inside which a small fire was discovered in a pile of lumber by Policeman I. F. Huggins. The blaze was extinguished by the Chemical engine with only a slight loss.

Including the alarm before day yesterday morning on account of the burning of three small houses in Fifth ward, the Department responded to six alarms in all during the twenty-four hours.

REUNION OF FISHER VETERANS

It is Proposed to Entertain on Historic Grounds Survivors of Greatest Bombardment in Annals of War.

Mr. H. C. McQueen, president of the Murchison National Bank, Rev. J. A. Smith and other veterans of Wilmington have conceived the happy idea of having a re-union of all survivors of the terrible battle of Fort Fisher on the grounds of the fort on August 10th of this year and from present indications the reunion will be a highly successful affair. Mr. McQueen and Rev. Mr. Smith were of Co. D, First North Carolina Regiment, which was in the front rank of that greatest of all bombardments, and they are anxious to meet their old comrades once again on that historic spot and are accordingly sending invitations to all of them to be present.

Mr. McQueen announced the plans of himself and comrades at the regular meeting of Cape Fear Camp No. 254, U. C. V., at the W. L. I. armory last night, and the same brought forth much interest and enthusiasm. Commander W. J. Woodward, Comrades H. C. McQueen and W. P. Oldham were appointed a committee to welcome the veterans upon the occasion of the reunion and to extend them the courtesies of the city.

The meeting of the Camp last night was presided over by Commander Woodward and Adjutant A. L. DeRosset was at his post as secretary. The exercises opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. James Carmichael, the chaplain, after which routine business was transacted. An application for membership was referred to the Membership Committee. Every member of the Camp was urged to provide himself with one of the regulation uniforms and to wear the same at funerals and upon similar public occasions when the Camp attends in a body.

Farewell, Second Regiment Band.

Members of the Second Regiment Band, which recently disbanded, had a farewell frolic at Wrightsville beach last night. Members went down on the evening cars for supper at the Ocean View hotel and later attended The Casino performance returning to the city about midnight. At the final business meeting last week there was found an unexpended balance in the treasury and some convivial member of the band conceived the idea of a farewell frolic. It was no sooner proposed than accepted and last night the affair was greatly enjoyed.

DISORDER ON A STREET CAR.

Four Young White Men Arraigned for Misconduct at Ninth and Princess Night Before Last—To the Roads.

In the municipal court yesterday at noon Hosea Davis, C. T. Williams, John Tharpe and Oscar C. Grant, the young white men who raised a disturbance on a street car and severely beat Conductor Peter Walker at Ninth and Princess streets Thursday night, were arraigned for trial before Mayor Springer. The three first named were arrested soon after the difficulty and Grant was arrested about 10 o'clock yesterday morning. They appeared in court with their counsel, Walter P. Gafford, Esq., and were first called to answer the charge of disorderly conduct in using violent language in the car. Thos. W. Davis, Esq., counsel for the C. R., L. & P. Co., and City Attorney William J. Bellamy conducted the prosecution.

Capt. W. H. Pemberton, Messrs. Geo. W. Chesnutt, U. M. Robinson and others testified as to the conduct of the men and Mayor Springer imposed a fine of $30 and costs, or 30 days on the roads, upon Davis and Williams, while Tharpe was given $10 or 15 days on the roads and Grant $5 or 10 days on the roads. Davis and Williams were sent to the roads yesterday afternoon. The other two are held at the station house but will be sent to the roads, if they do not raise their fines to-day.

When the case for disorderly conduct was disposed of, charges of an affray were called against them. Their attorney made an affidavit and the cases were set for a hearing before Justice Fowler at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At that hour the attorneys came into court and as the prisoners could not be produced until the sentences in the first case are satisfied, the cases were continued. In the meantime they will be held until their trial upon the more serious offence can take place.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 11.

THE ONLY RACE WARS ARE IN THE NORTHERN STATES.

New Orleans Picayune: The outbreaks of violence between whites and negroes in various cities of the Northern States are the most astonishing events of the past few months, and the scenes enacted in many respects resemble those which were once the subject of so much denunciation by Northern people, press and pulpit when they occurred in Southern States.

There is a great difference in these uprisings as they occur in the North and in the South. In the Southern States there is nothing that can be characterized as a race war in the outbreaks of violence there. When an atrocious crime is committed by a negro or negroes in a Southern community, the people turn out in a body to arrest the guilty parties, and this being done, the miscreants are made the objects of instant and terrible popular justice, but there is no attempt or desire to trouble negroes unconnected with the offense. It is only against the guilty that public indignation is aroused.

In Northern communities, on the contrary, the perpetration of an atrocious offence by a negro seems to arouse feeling of race hostility. The two races immediately come in violent conflict, and the result is that there is open war between the two. This was the case at Belleville, Ill.; at Peoria, in the same State; at Wilmington, Delaware; at Evansville, Ind., and wherever there has been trouble of that sort in the Northern States. It does not appear whether this is the result of race prejudice or because the negroes in Northern communities rise up in a body to defend the criminals of their race.

The fact cannot be too fully dwelt on that no such condition or state of affairs exist in the Southern States. Here the negroes do not band together to protect a ravisher or murderer, and as a matter of course they are not troubled and are in no danger of being interfered with. They live on terms of entire friendship and security with the whites and they know that only criminals of their race are objects of indignation.

These conditions exist in communities where the negroes may be, and often are, in a large majority, while in the North the race conflicts occur where the whites vastly outnumber the negroes. In Belleville the white population is over 17,000, while the negroes number only a few hundred. In Peoria there are 55,000 whites to 1,500 negroes. In Wilmington there are some 70,000 whites and 10,000 negroes, and at Evansville there are 52,000 whites and 8,000 negroes. Under these conditions, unless the negroes rise to defend criminals of their race, there should be no reason to interfere with which to the extent that it could produce the conditions described as a race war.

The news comes to-night that trouble has already occurred and more is expected in Kansas, where there has been a large influx of negroes to work in harvesting the wheat. This seems to be a collision between the white and negro harvesters, and is in the nature of a labor trouble and has not grown out of any crime. There should be no reason, under such conditions, for any serious trouble since the saving of the wheat crop, which must be done in a limited time, taking advantage of the weather, which is not always favorable, is of the nature of emergency work, and there should be entire harmony among the large numbers of workers required to do it.

The race troubles in the North seem to occur under conditions so radically different from those in the South that the fact should be noted and given due consideration by statesmen and philanthropists.

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS BY TRUSTS.

Philadelphia Press: Ex-Lieutenant Governor Lee, of Missouri, who was mixed up in various schemes connected with the boodling Legislature of that State, says that when he was nominated the Tobacco Trust, the Sugar Trust and some other such "friends" sent contributions to help pay his election expenses. But he thought nothing of that; simply took the money and used it. There is reason to believe that the "trusts" do a good deal of that kind of indirect bribery. They send money to candidates to help pay "expenses," and then expect and receive pay in return from the official acts of these persons when elected.

A number of years ago a young lawyer in New York city was nominated for the State Supreme Court bench. The regular campaign assessment for this office was $25,000, as the term was fourteen years, and the annual salary $17,500. This particular lawyer was poor and without high standing at the bar. Numerous judgments were on file against him in the county clerk's office. There was much wonder as to what arrangements had been made about the $25,000 assessment. But this penniless lawyer paid his $25,000 and one of his early decisions was on a case pending when he was nominated, and the decision favored the very man who was credited with paying the assessment. It was a very important corporation case, sufficient to explain the nomination, otherwise regarded as extraordinary.

These contributions by the Tobacco Trust and other corporations to the "expenses" of men nominated for important offices are not gifts by any means. The exposures still being made in Missouri demonstrate that fact. But that State is not an exception in that respect.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— The insane asylum at Raleigh is badly crowded, and it is said that no less than seventy-one applications are now on file.

— Lumberton Argus: Mr. Alex. Harrell tells us his tobacco crop this year is better than last year. He has already cured 2,000 pounds.

— Charity and Children, the organ of the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville, says it has paid a net profit to the orphanage the past year of $1,350.

— The Whiteville News says that the Columbus Telephone Company's plant was sold at auction Monday, Mr. S. F. Craig being the purchaser at $3,900.

— Seventeen arrests were made in Greensboro on the Fourth, and not seventy, as the types made it appear yesterday.

— Miss Martha Broom was struck by the early morning north-bound train on the Seaboard Air Line road, at Wingate, Wednesday, and almost instantly killed.

— Newton Enterprise: We imagine that our country friends will add a considerable amount to their income this year from the sale of dried fruit. There are blackberries without end and as fine a crop of apples as we ever saw in the county.

—Greensboro Telegram: In the course of the next day or two the grading of the second track of the Southern Railway between Pomona and Greensboro will be commenced. Magruder and Joyce, of Danville, are the contractors.

— Scotland Neck Commonwealth: Mr. John Henry Savage, who lives near Hobgood, sent a stalk of corn to this office a few days ago that measured eight feet and four inches. It was said that he had twelve acres in such corn, with the stalks two feet apart.

— Wilson Times: Captain Venable is making a success raising truck. He has sold this season $1300.00 worth of lettuce, shipped 150 crates of fine tomatoes, for which he realized a good price, and this morning brought to market a dozen canteloupes, the first of the season to this place.

— Charlotte Observer: The strawberry farms about Charlotte give promise of producing berries until fall. On the farm of Prof. Geo. B. Hanna, to the east of the city, hands were yesterday engaged in picking berries of the second crop. The field is as white with blooms as in early spring and the yield of strawberries promises to continue until frost.

— Chatham Record: The preliminary survey of the proposed railroad from Pittsboro to Greensboro is completed and the surveying party returned to headquarters at Gulf. Mr. Spence Taylor, who has been on the survey, says that a good route has been secured. The chief engineer and his assistants will now make out a profile out of the route and prepare estimates as to its cost.

— Duplin Record: Mr. Jesse Albritton, of Calypso, shipped from five acres of beans 1,000 bushels. This is the largest yield we have heard of. Mr. Geo. Albritton is another champion trucker. He shipped this season 1,100 barrels of potatoes. —— Mr. Frank Bell, of Poplar Grove, canght 27 large rats in his barn one day last week and after the big haul he caught 18 more at different times, making a total of 45. These were all caught in a hollow log which Mr. Bell placed in the barn for that purpose. The rats were all of the largest kind.

— Kinston Free Press: A pitiful but shameful sight was presented to persons at the Atlantic and North Carolina depot yesterday afternoon when a young woman, or a person so featured by God, on the incoming train, shocked the finer sensibilities of the people at the train by her condition of hopeless intoxication. She had made herself so obnoxious in the car that the porter was ordered to take her from the train and she resisted so that a policeman had to be called to take her off and lock her up.

A Wilmington policeman tells how he did it.

B. R. King, the well known policeman, residing at 706 Woster St., says: "I had terrible pain in my back which worked around to my side and in my stomach, so bad at times that it laid me up. I used internal medicines and they did not help me. I put on plasters and rubbed with liniment, and none of them helped me at all. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended I got a box of them at Bellamy's drug store. The next day after commencing to use them I noticed relief. Since using two boxes of them I have not had an ache or a pain in my back. It is with pleasure that I add my name to those endorsing the claims made for this remedy."

TESTIMONY FROM A LEADING DRUGGIST

The following testimony speaks for itself. It is a matter of humanity to tell everybody with a skin disease about this medicament.

Astonishingly quick and complete cures of all varieties of skin diseases by D. D. D. have been fully verified in nine cases out of every ten that have come under my observation. In every case it did its work in 3 to 6 weeks time. It is to my knowledge the most wonderful curative agent in all Materia Medica for diseases of the skin. Its results are marvelous; some cases of years' standing were cleared away in a few days almost before my eyes.

I give this public aknowledgement in response to a request from the D. D. D. Company as to my honest opinion of this medicament. I have no hesitancy in expressing myself positively concerning it, as its efficacy has been proven to me beyond the possibility of doubt.

D. D. D. is now used by every family physician who has investigated it. It is used by the greatest skin specialists in the country. It is used in the Cook County Hospital, Chicago. It will clear away any parasitic break in the skin in from 3 to 60 days time. It is a medical triumph. In Eczema, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Itching Piles and all skin affections, in the invariable success this local treatment proves it is a skin parasitic that causes the trouble and that it is not the blood that is to blame.

D. D. D. clears it all away—absolutely and quickly, too.

The above druggist will fill mail orders on receipt of price—$1.00 a bottle. Compounded for druggists everywhere by the D. D. D. Company, 70 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, July 10.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of two to five points, and immediately following the call displayed great firmness coupled with excitement and activity under further bull support, covering by room and Wall street shorts, and rather better cables than were expected so far as the new crop positions were concerned. August opened at 12.25, sold up to 12.44 in the first few minutes, while July was sold at 12.30 and September after opening at 10.80 soon reached 10.97, with the latter positions showing net gains of from five to seven points. As the market advanced, however, the bulls withdrew active support and soon a moderate realizing movement was in progress which, with the assistance of renewed selling by the bear contingent, brought about a decline from the best from eight to thirty-nine points, August showing greatest weakness. Then covering in the near by positions once more rallied the market, which, however, was again weakened in the mid-afternoon by a well directed drive against September which broke that month to 10.57, a loss of about forty points from the best of the morning. Just before the close the bulls came to the support of values and succeeded in recovering about six points of the lost ground on September, but the market was finally barely steady, net eight to twenty points lower, this being very nearly the lowest of the session. Sales were 250,000 bales, estimated. After the opening spurt and aside from the interval of weakness in the afternoon market, trading was at no time particularly active, but sentiment continued very nervous and unsettled. Climatic conditions reported for the day were generally favorable, and aside from continued reports of boll weevil in Texas, crop advices were fairly satisfactory. These factors naturally helped the bears after the initial advance, while there was also considerable profit-taking either for the account of the clique or their following.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Cotton quiet at 12.50; net receipts — bales; gross receipts 440 bales; stock 162,949 bales.

Futures closed barely steady: July 12.25, August 12.05, September 10.63, October 9.89, November 9.65, December 9.63, January 9 59, February 9.45, March 9.53.

Spot cotton closed quiet and 30 points higher; middling uplands 12.50; middling gulf 12.75c; sales 2,716 bales.

Total to-day, at all seaports—Net receipts 1,262 bales; exports to Great Britain 79 bales; exports to France — bales; exports to the Continent 1,107 bales; stock 245,097 bales.

Consolidated, at all seaports—Net receipts 14,697 bales; exports to Great Britain 933 bales; exports to France 6,000 bales; exports to the Continent 1,107 bales; exports to Japan — bales.

Total since September 1st, at all seaports—Net receipts 7,678,242 bales; exports to Great Britain 2,758,450 bales; exports to France 769,234 bales; exports to the Continent 2,796,276 bales; exports to Japan 135,133 bales.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Aug. 25, 1903.

Gentlemen—Some six years ago I began to have sciatica, and also a chronic case of muscular rheumatism. At times I could not work at all (my business being baggage master on Southern R. R.). For days and weeks at a time I could not work. My suffering was intense. Physicians treated me, without permanent relief, however. Tried a number of advertised remedies without permanent benefit. Finally I tried "RHEUMACIDE." It did the work, and I have had excellent health for three years. I can cheerfully say that all rheumatics should use "RHEUMACIDE," for it is by far the best remedy.

The other day a lady in Missouri sent us a package and it came at a most opportune time; our babe was in a serious condition; his bowels had been in bad condition for days, and nothing that we gave did any good; the second dose of "TEETHINA" gave perfect relief and he has had no further trouble. Other members of the family have used it and every dose has been a perfect success.

A HORSE IN BATTLE

HOW HE FEELS WHEN IN THE MIDST OF A FIERCE ONSLAUGHT.

A Writer of Horse Stories Describes the Experiences of an Arab Charger In the Ranks of Stuart's Cavalry—The Gallop to Battle.

Probably no one will ever know just how a horse feels when going into battle. There is no way of finding out. So it is likely that no one will dispute the correctness of the description which Sewell Ford gives in "Horses Nine," published by Scribners.

The horse in question is Pasha, a half blood Arab hunter that has been pressed into service in Stuart's Black Horse cavalry. The story runs:

Early the next morning Pasha was awakened by the distant growl of heavy guns. By daylight he was on the move, thousands of other horses with him. Nearer and nearer they rode to the place where the guns were growling. Sometimes they were on roads, sometimes they crossed fields, and again they plunged into the woods where the low branches struck one's eyes and scratched one's flanks. At last they broke clear of the trees to come suddenly upon such a scene as Pasha had never before witnessed.

Far across the open field he could see troop on troop of horses coming toward him. They seemed to be pouring over the crest of a low hill, as if driven onward by some unseen force behind. Instantly Pasha heard, rising from the throats of thousands of riders on either side and behind him, that fierce, wild yell which he had come to know meant the approach of trouble. High and shrill and menacing it rang as it was taken up and repeated by those in the rear. Next the bugles began to sound, and in quick obedience the horses formed in line just on the edge of the woods, a line which stretched and stretched on either flank until one could hardly see where it ended.

From the distant line came no answering cry, but Pasha could hear the bugles blowing, and he could see the fronts massing. Then came the order to charge at a gallop. This set Pasha to tugging eagerly at the bit, but for what reason he did not know. He knew only that he was part of a great and solid line of men and horses sweeping furiously across a field toward that other line which he had seen pouring over the hill crest.

He could scarcely see at all now. The thousands of hoofs had raised a cloud of dust that not only enveloped the on rushing line, but rolled before it. Nor could Pasha hear anything save the thunderous thud of many feet. Even the shrieking of the shells was drowned. But for the restraining bit Pasha would have leaped forward and cleared the line. Never had he been so stirred. The inherited memory of countless desert raids made by his Arab ancestors was doing its work. For what seemed a long time this continued, and then in the midst of the blind and frenzied race there loomed out of the thick air, as if it had appeared by magic, the opposing line.

Pasha caught a glimpse of something which seemed like a heaving wall of tossing heads and of foam whitened necks and shoulders. Here and there gleamed red, distended nostrils and straining eyes. Bending above was another wall—a wall of dusty blue coats, of grim faces and of dust powdered hats. Bristling above all was a threatening crest of waving blades.

What would happen when the lines met? Almost before the query was thought there came the answer. With an earth jarring crash they came together. The lines wavered back from the shock of impact, and then the whole struggle appeared to Pasha to center about him. Of course this was not so. But it was a fact that the most conspicuous figure in either line had been that of the cream white charger in the very center of the Black Horse regiment.

M. THIERS AT HOME.

The Peculiar Habits of the Historian's Daily Life.

The daily life of Thiers was very peculiar. He rose always at a very early hour, about 5 o'clock in the morning, seldom later. After a cup of coffee and a light repast he would work steadily for many hours. Then he usually took a walk or would perhaps play a game of tennis before breakfast, which meal was served at the usual French hour. Then he would speak to his friends and go out for a drive, sometimes pay visits and return a little after 4, when he went regularly to bed and slept till it was time to get ready for dinner. For some extraordinary reason his dinner hour was 7:50, and he was very punctual. After dinner he always slept for twenty minutes or half an hour and then would remain up chatting and talking to a late hour. His brightest moment was always subsequent to his after dinner sleep. No one could be more agreeable in conversation, more easy or natural or more ready to impart information without being prolix. He was a true Provencal in all his tastes and habits. He loved the bright sun of his native Provence. He thoroughly appreciated the peculiar charm of the coast near Marseilles, the beauty of the gray olive groves and the smile of the Mediterranean. He preferred the dishes of Provence to almost any others. He used to mix oil liberally with his food, and I remember at a dinner at the Duchesse Galliera's a fair sized bottle of oil was specially placed next his plate, and he consumed it all.—Cornhill Magazine.

How Not to Get Old.

Once upon a time a young man who had a dread of growing old and having to give up the pleasures of youth preached the doctrine of good companionship and jolly living.

"Eat, drink and be merry," he said. "Seek gay companions and let wine and song keep your blood in motion, and you will never know what it is to be old."

He followed his own counsel and died in his youth.

Moral.—Devotion to appetite prevents a man from growing old.—New York Herald.

Thrift.

Every man who saves money is called mean and stingy by the loafers on the street corners and pointed out with reproach by the men who idle away their time. In order to get ahead a man must save, must spend less than he makes, and, above all things, he must work. Don't be ashamed of having any one say that you are "close." Attend to your own business, and you are all right. The men who criticise the thrifty really pay them a big compliment. It is the tribute sloth pays industry.—Nortonville News.

An Easy One.

"What supports the sun in the heavens?" asked the country schoolteacher.

"Why, its beams, of course," replied a precocious youngster.—Kansas City Independent.

Extremes Extremely Uncomfortable.

"What does comfortable circumstances mean?"

"Why, you're 'comfortable' when you're neither poor nor rich."—Detroit Free Press.

Puzzled the Professors.

An amusing joke was practiced upon the examiners at Cambridge, says a London paper. It had been said that the examination in mathematics had been becoming far too difficult, and very real complaints had arisen from tutors. To the astonishment of the university, all the eighteen or so solutions appeared on the day before the examination in the Granta, "worked out, we believe, by our office boy." How the miracle was performed remained a secret until it had been sufficiently wondered at. The editor of the Granta had secured the services of a number of recent senior wranglers, who in privacy had deliberately set to work to master the problems which the university dons had been concocting for months past. The task had to be accomplished within twenty-four hours, and the printers were up all night setting the solutions in type. Naturally the Granta sold by the thousand that week.

How He Got It.

A good story is told about a former member of the Missouri legislature. Before his election he was chronically "broke." When he returned from Jefferson City, he exhibited $500 in good, crisp greenbacks. Some of his friends "jollied" him about his prosperity.

"You didn't have a cent when you went to the legislature, did you, Jones?" said one of them.

"Not a blamed cent," said Jones.

"As a matter of fact I lent you half your railroad fare, didn't I?"

"I believe you did."

"Well, you were down in Jefferson City about forty days. You got $5 a day. Now, what the gang wants to know is how you managed to save $500 out of a total income of $200."

"Come closer," whispered Jones, "and I'll tell you how I did it. I had my washing done at home."—Kansas City Journal.

Brutally Tortured

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For fifteen years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me, though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 11.

PHILADELPHIA RACE RIOT.

One Man Killed and Several Other Persons Were Injured—Police Officers Suppressed the Riot.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9. —During a fight, in which nearly all the white and black population of Reduor street, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third, participated last night, John Mahon, 23 years old, of 2153 Ridge avenue, was killed and several other persons were injured.

Just how the fight started is a mystery. It appears that the bad feeling that has long existed between the heterogeneous inhabitants of the street was given vent last night in a fight among the youngsters of the neighborhood. Occurring at an hour when the residents were sitting on their steps, the older ones, both men and women, were attracted to the scene.

Clubs, stones and fists were used indiscriminately. Faces were cut and heads bruised and serious results were momentarily expected by the few who kept out of the melee.

A riot call was sent to the Jefferson Street Station and a squad of policemen hastened to the scene, Only by the vigorous use of their clubs could even they break up the fight and restore order.

REFUGEES MUST MOVE ON.

Negroes from Evansville Find No Hospitality in Indiana.

[Special to Baltimore Sun.]

INDIANAPOLIS, July 9.—The negro refugees from Evansville, more than 1,000 of whom have left that city through fear of mob violence, are meeting with many difficulties in the effort to find work and shelter, and much suffering may follow.

In many of the Southern Indiana towns squads of refugees have been met by self-constituted committees of whites and told to move on, and in the other cases where they have received temporary shelter with members of their race they have been ordered to leave. Squads have come as far North as this city and report that there seems to be a strong prejudice in all places against them. Though they are asking for work, it is denied them in many localities where white labor would readily find employment, owing to the scarcity of farm hands.

FIRE DESTROYS MUCH PROPERTY.

The Pier of the Scandanavian-American Line at Hoboken, N. Y. Burned.

LOSS NEARLY HALF MILLION.

Heat Intense—Firemen Had Hard Work. Turpentine Plant and Creosote Works in Georgia Burned--Planing Mill and Lumber Yard.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 10.- The new pier of the Scandinavian-American Line, at the foot of 17th street, Hoboken, was destroyed by fire to day and for the second time in three years the line is temporarily without a pier. It is believed the loss will amount to almost $500,000. The dock alone cost $200,000 to build.

The fire started in the store-room of the pier, and when discovered had firm foothold. There was no ship of the line in port. The steamship Island should have docked to day, but did not arrive. On the pier was a large part of the cargo destined for Europe, which was to be shipped on the Island and this was destroyed, causing a loss of over $300,000. Comparatively few men were at work on the pier at the time.

When the first fire engines arrived fully three hundred feet of the pier was blazing from the water's edge to the top. Tugs of all sorts and sizes threw water into the fire, but this seemed to have little effect. The city firemen were badly hampered in reaching the place.

The flames spread as rapidly as when the Northern German Lloyd and Scandinavian piers burned three years ago. There were three explosions, apparently caused by barrels of some inflammable material. After each the flames spread very rapidly. The heat was intense and many firemen dropped into the river for relief.

The slight wind carried the flames toward the Tietjen and Lang drydocks, containing a score of vessels. Those which could be gotten out were towed away. A near by bath house was crowded with women, girls and children, who fled without waiting to dress. Two children were slightly hurt in the crush.

West of the bulk head were moored the United States training ship Portsmouth and the Ward Liner Manhattan. These were in peril for a time, but the wind shifted, carrying the flames out over the river.

The naval reserves on the Portsmouth did good work in keeping the fire from the bulk heading.

Within three quarters of an hour after the fire started it was under control.

None of the workmen on the pier were injured.

Lumber and Turpentine Plants.

SAVANNAH, GA., July 10.—The planing mill and lumber yard of the Alapana Lumber Company at Alapana, Ga., were burned to-day with several hundred feet of lumber. The loss is estimated at upwards of $50,000.

The turpentine and creosote works at Moultrie, Ga., were burned last night. The plant cost $30,000 and a large stock of manufactured goods was on hand. Ten thousand gallons of turpentine increased the fierceness of the flames. There was no insurance.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

Over Seven Thousand Delegates at International Convention in Denver.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DENVER, COL., July 10.—A conservative estimate made this afternoon places the number of delegates in attendance on the International Christian Endeavor Convention, in session here, at 7,300. About 5,000 other visitors also have arrived.

Of the 64,000 societies that make up the Union Society of Endeavors throughout the world, the organization at the Twenty-third Avenue Presbyterian church of Denver shows the largest increase in membership since November last. Its membership has increased from 15 to to 135.

Rev. P. E. Beach, who was a missionary in China for six years, declared at one of to-day's missionary meetings, that foreign syndicates had secured every available railroad concession or business enterprise in China from the government, and the greed of the German and British, French and other foreign operators has brought about industrial revolution in that country.

"If the Chinese had the spirit of the men of '76 there would not be a foreigner or a missionary left in China," said Mr. Beach.

NEGRO MOBBED.

Driven Out of a Wisconsin Town for Walking With a White Girl.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MARINETTE, WIS., July 10.—A negro named "Deb" Flyn, bruised and cut from wounds inflicted by an excited crowd yesterday, was spirited out of town to-day. Flyn was walking with a white girl, and got into a quarrel with some Southerners who resented it. A crowd quickly collected, as a street carnival was being held, and clubs, stones and hammers were used on the negro. He was rescued by a company of militia, which was attending the carnival in a body. He was kept in hiding overnight.

THE RICHMOND STRIKE.

Soldiers Again Riding on Street Cars as Guards—No Disturbance.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., July 10.—The withdrawal of troops from Richmond has been halted by reason of continued stone-throwing at cars in the suburbs. To-night soldiers are again riding on the cars as guards, and no disturbance of any sort is reported from any quarter. Another striker is reported to have returned to work to-day. Travel on the cars continues to improve.

OFFICERS OF AMERICAN SQUADRON IN LONDON.

Entertained by the Lord Mayor at the Mansion House—The Speeches and Toasts—Kishineff Massacre.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 10.—Lord Mayor Samuel gave a luncheon at the Mansion House here to day, in honor of Rear Admiral Cotton and other officers of the United States European, squadron now at anchor in Ports mouth harbor.

After the toasts to King Edward and President Roosevelt had been received with enthusiasm, the Lord Mayor proposed the health of "Admiral Cotton, his officers, and the entire American navy."

"May the bonds which bind the two countries ever grow closer," said the Lord Mayor, "and if necessary, may we face the whole world together, while always endeavoring by every means in our power to maintain the peace of the world."

Incidentally the Lord Mayor made a striking reference to the Kishineff massacre. He said he was thankful that the United States was not bound by diplomatic rules and etiquette, and had not hesitated to raise its voice in protest against the barbarities of the world wherever they occurred.

Admiral Cotton made a graceful acknowledgement of the kindly welcome that the Americans had received from the British fleet and people, and added:

"The squadron is here by direct order of the President of the United States, and as a messenger of peace and good will, I am sure I speak for the peoples of both countries when I say I hope and I believe that the cross of St. George and the Stars and Stripes will never be waved but in amity and friendship and for the peace of the world."

Prolonged cheering greeted the admiral's speech.

In conversation with American officers at the king's dinner at Buckingham Palace yesterday evening members of the cabinet expressed a desire for an extension of the Monroe Doctrine, recognizing the paramount influence of the United States in the western hemisphere. Great Britain, they said, wants Washington to exercise control in some way over the financial obligations of the Central and South American States. Apparently Great Britain, not desiring a repetition of the Venezuelan affair, favors the adoption of means whereby the smaller republics will be compelled to meet their obligations without pressure from Europe.

THE BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE.

Officers Elected at Yesterday's Session of the International Union—Prayer Meeting Services.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., July 10.—To-day's session of the convention of the International Baptist Young People's Union opened with prayer meetings, which were held in local churches and conducted by visiting ministers.

Preceding the opening of the convention Rev. Robert Vandeventer, pastor of the Duffy Street Baptist Church of Savannah, Ga., conducted a normal lesson, and Rev. J. C. Massee, of Raleigh, N. C., led an open parliament, in which pertinent questions relating to the motives and progress of the union were discussed.

Following the reports of the various committees, officers of the union were elected for the ensuing term of office, as follows: President, Jno. H. Chapman, Chicago; first vice president, George Miller, Baltimore; second vice president, A. L. McCrimmon, Woodstock, Ont.; third vice president, W. M. Gaines, Atlanta; recording secretary, Rev. H. W. Reed, Rock Island, Ill.; treasurer, G. B. Osgood, Chicago.

The remainder of the morning session was devoted to addresses. The afternoon session was devoted to conferences and the meetings of State officers and boards of managers of the various chapters of the International Union.

REVIVAL OF WAR TALK.

Advices from China—Japan Adopting a Policy Independent of Her British Alliance.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PEKIN, July 10. — Advices from New Chwang regarding the recent cleaverage in the relations between Russia and Japan have caused a revival of the war talk, greater than at any time for three years. The recent sale of the British company to Russia has been taken to indicate a loss of confidence by the foreign residents in the ability of the powers to resist Russia's absorption of the port industries. Since the departure of the Russian minister, H. Lessar, for the Port Arthur conference, it has been learned that the Chinese foreign office intended to have a representative at that meeting and was only deterred from accepting the invitation by fear of alarming the other powers. Japan's demand regarding the deficiency in the indemnity payment is taken as an indication that she is adopting a policy independent of her British alliance.

A COUNTER PETITION

Relative to Treatment of Negroes in United States to be Sent to the Czar.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 10.—The Russian ambassador in London, according to the Catholic Herald, has refused to receive a petition relative to the treatment of negroes of the United States and forward it to the Czar, as requested by the Catholic Herald. The petition draws attention to the "increasing outrages on negroes, accompanied by appalling brutality," and urges the Russian government to continue representations to Washington, asking the authorities there "to take steps in the interest of civilization and humanity, to suppress the growing evil."

The ambassador says the matter is outside his purview and that he cannot, therefore, move therein. The Catholic Herald says the petition will be sent direct to St. Petersburg.

A special from Fredericksburg says that J. P. H. Grismon, treasurer of Spottsylvania county, Va., has absconded, owing to shortage in his accounts. He left a letter to his wife saying he would never return.

NO CHANGE IN POPE'S CONDITION.

Maintained by His Marvellous Vitality in the Struggle Against Death.

PHYSICIANS NOT HOPEFUL.

Another Operation Was Performed—The Patient Relieved--Doctors Found His Condition Not Much Changed. Had a Restful Day.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ROME, July 10.—The Pope's marvelous vitality still permits him to maintain his struggle against death. Although a portion of the night was passed in sleepless waiting, he greeted his doctors this morning with hopeful expressions. It was decided to perform another operation, which was executed by Dr. Mazzoni, assisted by Dr. Lapponi. The patient was visibly relieved and soon after arose, sat in his arm chair, and read his favorite Latin poet, Horace. The usual light nourishment was taken at noon and the Pope then lay down for a long rest. Although there is intense public anxiety, the neighborhood of the Vatican and St. Peter's is comparatively quiet.

The Pope rose at 6 o'clock this morning. He said he thought the air of his room was somewhat vitiated and wanted it changed. An attendant, Pio Centra, after having been authorized to do so by Dr. Lapponi, opened the windows of the whole apartment, including that of the sick room, the Pontiff having previously been carefully covered with extra blankets. After remaining open for a short time the windows were closed with the exception of the window of the sick room, Dr. Lapponi having decided that the balmy fresh air could only do the patient good.

The Pope prayed for half an hour, and then had breakfast, partaking of the yelk of an egg beaten up with sugar, in hot coffee, and a light biscuit. The Pontiff then attended to his toilet, but he did not shave. He then received his private secretary, Monsignor Angeli, who was again surprised at the Pope's brightness of mind and displays of energy. On leaving the sick room, Monsignor Angeli said that the Pontiff referred to several different matters, recalling exactly the most minute details and remembering facts, figures and dates with marvelous promptness, and all this to the accompaniment of snuff-taking. The doctors' visit and operation followed. The doctors found the condition of the Pope not much changed. His temperature was a little above 36 degrees centigrade, and his pulse was oscillating between 85 and 90.

The Pontiff questioned the doctors about his condition, saying: "Do not deceive me, doctors, nothing more can affect me."

He asked if the re-gathering of the serum in the pleural cavity means that the disease is growing seriously worse, and the doctors fenced, saying that it was one of the phases which generally re-occurs several times during an attack.

"Then," said the patient, "a new operation is necessary?" "We will see," answered Lapponi, and Mazzoni added: "Your Holiness knows that the operation is not dangerous in itself."

During the examination of the patient, the doctors, after a thorough sounding, found that a pulmonary sound had reappeared in the obtuse zone, except in the area limited to the region where the puncture was made for the extraction of the liquid, which is on a line drawn from the nipple of the right breast under the arm to the spinal column, the obtuse sound being between the sixth and eighth ribs. With his head against the ribs, Dr. Lapponi heard a murmur in the vesicular region. The murmur was confused, with pleuric rumblings, together with gurglings as of a small to middle-sized bubbles.

After the operation had been performed the following bulletin was posted at 10:30 o'clock:

"The august patient passed the first part of the night fairly peacefully, but afterwards the difficulty in his breathing became more marked, coupled with discomfort and an increase of the feeling of oppression. The pulse is small and weak, at the rate of ninety-two.

"Apyrexia was complete and there was a little diuresis. A flow of endopleuraitic matter being observed, a second operation was decided upon and immediately performed by Dr. Mazzoni. About a thousand grammes of bloody serum was extracted. The Pontiff bore the second operation very well, and in consequence of it both the respiration and the power of the heart at once improved.

(Signed) "LAPPONI,
"MAZZONI,
"ROSSONI."

Dr. Mazzoni's operation to-day was almost identical with that of Tuesday afternoon. The patient lay on his couch with his side exposed. The skin above the affected parts was washed with a solution of alcohol, cocaine was hypodermically injected and Dr. Mazzoni inserted a Pravaz needle, which, by suction, drew off the vitiated matter. The operation was comparatively painless and was performed without recourse to chloroform or other anæsthetics.

After the operation the Pope felt so relieved that he insisted on getting up, and took several steps to his armchair and seated himself for a few minutes. He then arose and going to the book-shelves where he keeps his favorite authors, took down Horace's Ars Poetica, returned to the arm-chair and began reading, holding one leg over the other. He seemed to feel no ill effects from the operation; on the contrary, he appeared to have derived benefit from it.

Later in the day the Pope had lunch and then took a long rest. At 3:15 he was still enjoying a restful repose, and showing no ill effects from the operation. The neighborhood of the Vatican was tranquil.

At 4:20 everything was still quiet at the Vatican. No change of any sort was reported. Cardinal Rampolla did not venture into the sick chamber, but anxiously inquired frequently as to the condition of the patient.

Dr. Mazzoni had an examination made by a microscopist of the serum taken from the Pope's pleaura on last Tuesday to ascertain whether it contained any specific microbe. Some doubt had arisen as to whether the original attack of pneumonia had been provoked by some specific agency such as for instance tuberculosis or cancer. The examination showed no such microbe, and the conclusion was inevitable that the pneumonia was due, as originally stated, to adynamic circulation proceeding from lack of heart strength.

Dr. Rossini's Views.

ROME, July 10.—Professor Rossini graphically described the Pope's condition and surroundings to the Associated Press correspondent: "It might have been expected," he said, "that I would find a weary old man with exhausted body and spirit, and ready to enter eternity. But on the contrary when I approached the bedside, I immediately saw that I had been mistaken. In spite of all I had heard concerning his marvelous vitality, I was amazed to find a man of such great age, after so dangerous an illness, exhibiting such versatility of mind and such power of mental concentration. As I approached the bed, he pressed my hand with a slight effort, and looked at me intently with his bright black expressive eyes. He wore a calm, dignified smile, and began asking me a number of questions. It seemed almost incomprehensible that this was a man on the verge of death. Every power of will and intellect remained intact, showing complete consciousness of age. Imagine an invalid, 94 years of age, anxious to make the acquaintance of his new consulting doctor, asking suggestive questions and testing his opinion of clinical science. That any man should be able to make such a prompt, decided effort of the will is certainly astonishing.

"After hearing his questions, testing my studies and scientific ability, I assure you I was almost ready to believe that some miracle was being wrought concerning the Pope's condition."

Prof. Rossoni said that the state of the Pontiff was very serious. There was little danger of an immediate climax, although it was constantly present. The Pope was making a brave struggle, but, the doctor continued, "his weapons of defence are weak. Even the finest tempered steel becomes blunted after so many years of use. A renewal of the pleuric phenomena is always dangerous, even in a young strong organism. Therefore how much more dangerous in a man of 94. Fortunately there are few other serious complications. The defective respiration has had a bad influence on the circulation and we found an alarming depression in the heart's action. Perhaps this second withdrawal of the liquid deposit may restore the circulation, but the great question is, can this relief be sufficient and permanent? Unfortunately there are many reasons for doubt both concerning the restored circulation and the clearing of the respiratory passages.

The doctor declined to say whether, in his judgment, the Pope would have a peaceful end. He concluded the interview by saying:

"The Pope is very seriously ill, and is 94 years old. These are essential facts. All the rest is smoke."

Once to day the doctors succeeded in overcoming Pope Leo's iron will. He had firmly decided to receive three cardinals.

After this morning's operation he requested the doctors to leave the room, saying he wished to see the cardinals. The doctors gently but firmly protested, declaring that he was still too weak. "But I shall not be fatigued, as I feel much better this morning," urged the Pope. But the doctors insisted, urging that it was for his own good, and Pope Leo finally yielded, although expressing the hope that he might see some of the cardinals later.

BETTING ON RACES.

Warrants Served on Bookmakers and Others at Chicago.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Efforts to stop betting on races at Washington Park to-day were futile. Twenty constables appeared at the track early in the afternoon with a batch of warrants for book-makers and others. They were not allowed to enter the enclosure until after the races were over. The gates were all guarded, and the constables made no show of force. When the constables did come in they got into a brief fight with Pinkerton men, but the disturbance attracted little attention. The warrants were served quietly and bonds were furnished at once. The cases were set for July 17th by Justice Branwell, who was at the track. No warrants were served on officials of the track.

A HOT DAY IN NEW YORK.

Twenty-two Deaths and Sixty-five Prostrations from Heat.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Twenty-two deaths and sixty-five prostrations in and around New York and Brooklyn tell the story of to-day's heat. It was the hottest July 10 in the history of the local Weather Bureau, the highest previous record being 91 degrees, recorded July 10, 1880.

The early threat of a temperature that would break all records, however, was not fulfilled. Thursday's record of 94 degrees at 4 o'clock, the high weather mark of the year, was reached to-day at twenty minutes past 1 o'clock, without signs of relief. But by 2 o'clock the temperature had fallen two degrees, where it remained during the next two hours. At 8 o'clock to-night the temperature had fallen to 83 degrees, six degrees lower than at the same hour Thursday.
